

GONE MOAB 2017

ADVERTISING REQUIREMENTS & GUIDELINES

goneMOAB would like to provide our sponsors partnership to Advertise and Market their products within our marketing means through Home Page Content, Forum Page Content, Event Display Banners, Event Apparel, Social Media, and Trail Guides provided to our attendees and members. To make this happen we have developed a set of guidelines and templates to define our marketing strategy. Below you will find our requirements under each type of advertisement we use. Please take a look and provide the information to the staff at goneMOAB@gmail.com no later than April 10th prior to the event of the current year.

Please refrain from using pricing in advertisements as material may become dated. Ads displaying nudity, inappropriately dressed individuals, sexual innuendo, or suggestive or sexual imagery, will not be accepted. goneMOAB reserves the right to refuse advertising content that is offense, inappropriate, or inconsistent with goneMOAB's basic design appearance or brand.

WEBSITE HOME PAGE CONTENT

The goneMOAB home page will consist of a sponsor being display under the Sponsors Box each time the home page is loaded, please be aware these may be adjusted to keep the website proportional on the sidebar. A drop-down at the top menu bar will take you to the sponsor area home page, displaying all sponsors in their respective categories with an HTML or Java embedded logo to their respective website. Below you will find the requirements to be listed on the organizations home page and sponsor area home page. Please see example in the following pages.

TRAIL GUIDE BOOK EXAMPLES

IMPORTANT:

Content, such as logos, phone numbers, boarders, copy, etc., placed too close to the trim line, may be cut off when the printer trims the magazine. A good rule of thumb is to keep live matter .5" inside the trim lines on all sides.
